I live in a very old town which is surrounded by beautiful woods. It is a famous scenic spot. On Sundays, hundreds of people come from the city to see our town and to walk through the woods. Visitors have been asked to keep the woods clean and tidy. Trash cans have been placed under the trees, but people still litter everywhere.

Last Wednesday, I went for a walk in the woods. What I saw made me very sad. I counted seven old cars and three old fridges. The trash cans were empty and the ground was covered with pieces of paper, cigarette butts, old tires, empty bottles and rusty cans. Among the trash, I found a sign which said: “Anyone who leaves litter in these woods will be prosecuted!”
